

ALABAMA TEENS: KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

While Alabama has not acted to protect your interests or represent your rights in its laws, you are protected by Federal Laws (www.heal-online.org/fedrights.pdf) and need not be helpless in protecting yourself from illegal or unconscionable institutionalization by your parents!

If your parents have threatened to or are planning to have you institutionalized in a lockdown "24-hour secured" facility (including, but, not limited to: residential treatment programs, behavior modification programs, boot camps, wilderness camps/programs, etc.), you have options:

FILE AN INJUNCTION:

You can file for injunctive relief. You will need to contact legal aid, the Southern Poverty Law Center, or the ACLU for information on filing a petition for injunctive relief. The court may grant a temporary injunction against your parents sending you to any lock-down facility. At this point, you will be in a position to request a guardian ad litem or speak to the attorney of your choosing to act on your behalf.
