

Buffalo Soldiers Founder Released from Prison

Updated: Thursday, 18 Feb 2010, 10:07 PM MST
Published : Thursday, 18 Feb 2010, 11:53 AM MST

PHOENIX - The leader of a boot camp for troubled teens who served six years for the death of a boy was released from prison Thursday.

Charles Long ran the Buffalo Soldiers boot camp. He was sent to prison after the death of 14-year-old Anthony Haynes, who died of dehydration and near drowning after being forced to exercise in the hot sun.

Long was convicted of reckless manslaughter and aggravated assault.

Advertisement

Are you snoring yourself to death?

Snoring isn't just bad for your relationship with your... More

More Articles

- How to keep your PC clean and quick
- The secret to getting highly discounted cruise tickets
- Hair loss, aging and supplements
- What your doctor may not know about menopause

0000

Advertising provided by: ARALifestyle.com