Hi, I'm Rob # and for the past ten years I've been re-playing the memories of my life over and over, and its time to make some new ones with a genuine friend.

I'm 35 yrs old (a leo) 6'2 235 lbs, brown hair brown eyes. I'm a fan of all things outdoors. I played high school foot ball and marched in the band at half time. I like comedy in all forms and the show "Big Bang theory" is one of my favorites. Some of my past jobs included baking at cinnabon and Kimsy Home, working on cars & trucks and installing water filtration units in schools and homes.

I look forward to your reply and sharing some laughs, So if your willing to share your time with some one who will cherish every second and appreciate the "Light" your presence brings in this dismal place please write... untill then take care.
