

WGAL.com

Facility For Troubled Teens In Ephrata To Close

Summit Quest Once Employed 250

POSTED: 12:12 pm EST February 19, 2009

UPDATED: 12:32 pm EST February 19, 2009

EPHRATA, Pa. -- Summit Quest, a facility for troubled teens in Ephrata, is in the process of closing.

They still have a small group of teens to place in alternative treatment before they can shut their doors.

At one point, Summit Quest employed 250 people.

The facility will work with the state Department of Public Welfare to figure out the long-term needs for the facility in the community.

Copyright 2009 by WGAL.com. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.