Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

I learned about your program from a friend who has been through your "training". I considered finding a local provider of your service as a result of their recommendation. But, I am also an activist and advocate who has survived cults, frauds, and sexual assault. And, I've been a well respected activist and advocate against such for over 20 years depending on whether you consider speaking out against it even as a child/youth as a form of informal activism.

As a result of my trauma, I can be hyper-vigilant in my advocacy. In addition, I look into things in-depth before signing up for any potentially fraudulent or cult "services". So, as I looked into your services and any credentials I became growingly alarmed while also fearing for the safety of my friend who has been lured by your deception. I gave that friend every opportunity to answer my questions and concerns effectively. And, on the sly they said they didn't do any looking into it before signing up or trusting your claims. Given how well we know each other, it made me feel inadequate in communicating effectively in regards to my advocacy from some perspectives. But, objectively I know cults and frauds deceive and that is a major component of how they trick victims into paying for bogus services or joining them, so, I accept it is more undue influence and brainwashing by your "academy" rather than any failures on my part to effectively communicate. I'm always open to clarification and direct communication to resolve misunderstandings. And, anyone with any empathy at all for survivors like me would seek to alleviate worry and concern that triggers trauma rather than exacerbate it unless suffering undue influence of people like you. So, this message is one last attempt at potentially giving you the benefit of any doubts while understanding I did my research and am likely completely right in my current assessment of the situation. However, I am humble enough to consider the remote possibility that I've stumbled into a comedy of errors of epic proportion which when effectively explained may make a great plot for a novel or film. I do write fiction to help manage my trauma and process. So, either way something good can come out of this.

Now, I don't know if you've had the opportunity to visit <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> and see the information I've researched on you and your services with sources cited. That page is filled with statements and not questions. So, in the event you are not sure how to respond to critical statements with sources cited with your own alternative statements (with sources cited) to address any misunderstanding, here are the questions you need to answer to resolve or get any changes made to the HEAL site. If you prove I'm in error, I'll publicly apologize to you and admit that while I exercised due diligence in all regards, apparently I still was not fully informed. If you remain silent, I'll assume you have no foundation on which to do or make any claim nor sell any service and that your silence is an admission of your own guilt because you have no retort. In addition, I understand narcissists ignore criticism, even when well-founded and fact-based, and it will further validate my concern that you are a narcissism cult unduly influencing someone I care for deeply. The questions:

1. What are the legal names of Kaya Danielle Leigh aka Kaya Azure and Aeleo Azure?
2. Through what, if any, mental health, medical, or athletic training licensing boards are you licensed to provide medical, mental health, or athletic/yoga training?
3. Through what entity or school are your founders certified or through which entity or school did you earn any degrees qualifying you to provide any services you offer through Sacred Breath Academy?
4. In what state to you hold any business licenses as Sacred Breath Academy? If you are licensed under any other business name, what is it?

5. In what state is Sacred Breath Academy accredited to provide any certifications of any sort?

6. Through what independent third-party lab are your sensual creams, lotions, and bath/body products tested for quality assurance before being marketed?

7. Have you ever studied comparative religion or philosophy in-depth? If so, did you major or minor in it? If so, where? (This question is because you claim on your site that air or breath is feminine which is patently false. It either has no gender (science) or is masculine (religion/philosophy). The fact that a female runs SBA and centers the idea around herself, suggests it is run by a narcissist who is delusional and extremely ignorant. But, I'm willing to be corrected if mistaken. Breath may be dependent on the gender of the breather and would still suggest self-absorption and narcissism if claiming everyone's breath is a gift from the narcissist and holds the gender of the narcissist making false claims. But, mammals breathe amniotic fluid as our first breaths of life in the womb. And, amniotic fluid is often referred to as "water" or "waters". Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Amniotic_fluid And, traditionally philosophically and religiously, water is feminine. But, you don't teach people to breathe amniotic fluid or water, it happens naturally and only under certain conditions. So, the first breath of life is arguably breathing water. But, at best you mislead and pervert all truths to sell bullshit when remotely examined from an informed position. I'm happy to be corrected. So, you are using brainwashing and causing changes to brain chemistry through forcing people to breathe differently which results in serious health risks that are the risks you claim to address with your lies from my perspective and any educated perspective. Your activities have been shown in scientific studies to increase paranoia, risk of heart attack, anxiety, and more. In addition, it has been shown it results in people feeling lightheaded and dizzy which means they are not getting the right balance and makes them suggestible to brainwashing and undue influence.

So, I may have more questions. Should you have the confidence and ability to effectively address my concerns and answer my questions, I'll be happy to reconsider my current position and am always happy to be further enlightened. But, you'll have to excuse any abrasiveness as from my perspective you are currently criminals who have harmed my friend by isolating, brainwashing, and defrauding him. And, based on my own experiences as a victim, survivor, activist, and advocate, my perspective is quite informed with a solid foundation in fact and evidence. So, while others, including you, may encourage everyone else suspend their honest reason and commitment to truth for the sake of benefiting your profit margins, I won't do that ever. But, I will consider honest and supported statements with sources cited clearing up any misunderstanding or correcting me should I be in error. I'm happy to apologize should that be the case.

I look forward to hearing from you and will be pleasantly surprised by any response. But, as I believe you to be a fraud and narcissistic cult, my expectation is that you will remain silent and dismissive of valid and reasonable concerns raised about your "academy" or respond with your own questions to evade actually addressing my concerns. Evading my concerns by going on the offensive to attack rather than address my concerns, will further reinforce my current understanding and position. And, I'll give you until Friday, April 5th, 2019 at 4:30pm Pacific to respond before adding to our information page on your program that we sent you questions in the event we were mistaken and you failed to respond while including that based on our experience that suggests you are exactly what we understand you to be at this time.

I'll spend my life as I have helping to liberate people from exploitation by cults, frauds, and other criminals. And, I hope to successfully liberate my friend too.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith

HEAL National Coordinator/Co-Founder

PS I like responses to be recorded. So, e-mail is as good as phone since I record my calls. But, if you state you don't want your responses posted or to be included at <http://www.heal-online.org/requests.htm>, I'll respect that request and keep our communications off the site. Some people want it posted, some don't when offered this opportunity. To encourage dialogue, I do respect such requests when expressly made.

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

This is your one and only reminder to answer the questions below before they are posted to the site with commentary about your failure to respond and what that indicates. You can answer them at any time and any responses may result in editing of the site should you respond after the deadline. The deadline remains 4:30pm Pacific, Friday April 5th, 2019.

If confused about anything, just ask. But, whether or not you were wished a "Happy April Fools Day" and believe this is part of that, I assure you it isn't a joke even though based on my assessment Sacred Breath Academy is and in very bad taste too given children have died from breathwork resulting in state bans of the practice.

Again, happy to be corrected if there's been a misunderstanding.

My Best,

Angela Smith

I doubt you are remotely legitimate in any way. But, I remain open to the possibility we've made an error. The possibility of that is so slim and probability of our being correct so great we're willing to give our own due diligence the benefit of the doubt instead of your silence and see that as reasonable. We also understand you may not wish to self-incriminate further. But, you've already done that simply by illegally operating in the first place.

If I can be of any assistance, let me know.

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

We've updated the page again at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm>. I'd like you to think about why rules, standards, and laws exist and how they've evolved since Hammurabi and even before that by way of local custom and social organization. I'd like you to consider that even in nature there are consequences and disagreements that require some resolution. For example, many species, particularly mammals of which humans are included, have a basic policy of exile or death for those who threaten or cause harm to the pack/society /troop/etc. In modern human societies we've established and evolved laws and systems of justice to deal with disagreements between each other peaceably whenever possible to avoid civil war or even wars between nations. But, when we have lawlessness often we see things like the Hatfields and the McCoys which show humanity, like other mammals, will resort to wrath and vengeance where systems of justice with laws we all understand and have the right to get amended through various avenues are not available nor accessible.

With the advent of the internet and depending on said accessibility, those with internet access can now learn all the laws applicable to their life choices as well as what constitutes illegality and harm to avoid any public disciplinary actions. And, if you find a law unreasonable or unfair you can challenge that on constitutional grounds through the justice system or by lobbying congress. But, ignoring the laws and pretending they don't apply to you is very Leopold and Loeb regardless of if the criminal behavior is overtly violent or not. But, since boycotting Israel on human rights grounds is considered by some to be a form of economic violence, it would seem fraud (theft by deceit) would be considered a form of economic terrorism particularly if associated with human trafficking rings like that of Jeffrey Epstein.

So, I've given you the opportunity to answer the seven questions and enlighten me in the event my understanding is based on a mistaken belief though I've documented the facts supporting it and exercised due diligence on my end. I'm also an expert in the area of exposing cults, frauds, human traffickers, and scams (i.e. diploma mills/fake certification and degree programs/etc). And, because of both my extensive knowledge and experience, I feel confident that my beliefs in regards to your program are well-founded with no evidence provided suggesting the contrary.

Now, I confirmed with law enforcement that based on the information and evidence I do have that you are committing criminal fraud. So, if you have evidence to the contrary showing where we're in error or have misunderstood something, you could help clear up any public statements about your activities by answering the questions. But, if you don't answer those questions then we have no reason to make any changes nor believe you to be acting in good faith.

What we require is you answer those questions and cite your sources. The questions are pretty clear as they specify for you to name where your trainers were educated and through what licensing boards or offices you hold any licenses, degrees, or qualifications. I answered all 7 of the questions I asked you with sources cited in communicating with a third-party who has been bcc'd on this message. If you'd like me to send you my answers I will or if they wish to enlighten you maybe they'll forward it to you and they have my consent to forward those answers to you.

If you have any questions for me, feel free to ask and I will respond to you. You can be hostile too. But, if you are unreasonable and unwilling to look at the facts and have a reasonable discussion, then that will reinforce our position that you are a narcissist cult. And, if you only targeted narcissists and it was just a mutual admiration society for narcissists feeding each other's delusions for cash while calling it networking when you show up at someone else's bullshit scam or retreat (paraphrasing Elizabeth on this one), then, I'd be less bothered by it overall. But, if illegal and spreading destructive ideologies while promoting or associating with human trafficking rings, that's illegal for good reason and I support your being shut down. And, recruiting someone I love and coercing, manipulating, brainwashing, and unduly influencing them in a manner that puts their life and livelihood at risk was a really bad move given who I am and what I do.

So, if I'm wrong and this is a comedy of errors of epic proportion, reliably sourced information (with sources cited to clear up any misunderstanding on my part as a result of existing reliably sourced information in my possession also shared online) is what is required to manifest a peaceful accord which will help spread peace and harmony rather than distrust and confusion. So, I'm willing to apologize and understand I can be somewhat "raw, honest, and unflinching" like a buzzsaw so I've heard. But, the keyword is "honest" and given my life experiences if you walked a mile in my shoes and weren't at least raw you'd deserve high praise. But, I don't flinch because that only encourages criminals by making them think you are too scared to fight and too paranoid to call the cops. I'm courageous enough to fight using words and facts by unflinchingly spreading the truth with sources cited and happy to call law enforcement when a crime is suspected or shown to be in progress.

I hope this helps you understand HEAL's position and my perspective better. You are welcome to contact me. But, if it is all hostility with no facts, then I'll likely respond with #WhatCheneySaid if anything. If it is all pleasant compliments with some condescending words suggesting HEAL edit the site though you provide no documentation showing we've erred, that's not going to work. If it is facts showing our facts are in error in light of new reliably sourced facts previously unknown to us, then we'll make changes and apologize.

Check out <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> and all the hypertext links for documentation. If you have information showing any of that is inaccurate or not a complete picture, we'll consider it, fact check it, and make any needed changes.

I hope this is clear and calm enough. But, appreciate when people understand that other people, particularly survivors of human trafficking done in the guise of private academies at times, have good reason to be hyper-vigilant when discovering a loved one has been recruited by such a program operating without any licenses, qualified staff, while being endorsed by someone part of the whole Jeffrey Epstein scandal.

So, while I appreciate that I've been somewhat hostile at times in expressing myself, I hope if you were in my shoes you'd have the same feelings of hostility resulting from concern that a loved one appears to be in a cult linked to human trafficking. And, since I've done everything legally and above board while expressing my discontent over the situation sometimes very unpleasantly, I feel my position is reasonable while understanding people possibly ignorant of their criminality or that of their associates might find an initial hostile approach from a more informed person off-putting. So, I get it and hope you do too.

All My Best,

Angela Smith

Angela,

Now you are making inadvertent death threats in addition to stalking and harassing both Sean and our organization? We take this very seriously and have already contacted the authorities.

Our lawyer will require your full legal name, copy of your driver's license or US passport and the name of the alleged "student" who has "contacted" you. Otherwise our lawyers will be getting your IP address and information from Amazon via the stalker packages you have been incessantly sending Sean. We take stalking very seriously and will pursue it to the full extent of the law if necessary.

Also, after inquiring on your further, I have come upon various literature that debunks your "organization" and deeply questions your mental health. Once such article may be found here: <http://healonlinerevealed.com/>

An excerpt:

*HEAL's espouses opinion and untruths about the personnel of therapeutic programs with no proof whatsoever. No one at HEAL is a trained therapist, psychologist or childcare expert. They have never set foot on the campus of nearly all of the programs they claim to have abused their residents. Their goal is to simply shut them all down ... HEAL always assumes the worst, even when they can find nothing wrong with a program.

Sorry, but we do not in any way, shape or form comply with terrorism which is what you are: a mentally unstable terrorist. You are terrorizing our organization and many others with no grounds to do so.

We are currently having our lawyers and law enforcement review the thousands of emails and mail you have sent Sean along with a false report you made to the FBI regarding him. We see that you have a history of mental illness having attempted suicide as a teenager along with the nonsensical emails you have sent in shocking excess. Our lawyers are questioning your sanity and advising us to process with both legal action and a restraining order for cyber harassment and stalking. Your incessant mail and emails to Sean constitutes stalking and harassment under the law and now your subsequent harassment of and false claims regarding my organization does so as well. You are looking at severe legal penalties here.

Additionally, you have obvious lies listed on your "website" regarding our organization.

The first is that you ask "our employees" to contact you if they have "endured mistreatment". This is hilarious. We don't have any employees nor did we ever. False claim #1

Further, our website clearly states that it is for informational purposes only and is not intended to diagnose, mitigate, treat or cure any disease or condition. You suggest otherwise on your site. False claim #2

Also, for your information, no children are allowed to practice our form of breathwork. The child in Colorado was practicing Rebirthing Breathwork which is not even close to our method. Ours is very gentle and safe. We do not allow those under 18 to practice it. Further, the article said the child died via suffocation from excess pillows and negligence, not the actual breathwork, two very different things. We do not even use pillows. To poorly extrapolate as you are is like saying one person died in a plane crash in one isolated event via American Airlines so ALL airlines should be banned and grounded. Extremely erroneous logic there.

Next, you have no credentials to conduct an "investigation", especially via an unsecured website chock full of false information and fear-based assumptions.

All of your false claims are grounds for immediate lawsuit.

If you cannot provide an actual student's name that "reported" us, then this is an immediate cease and desist notice for both Sean Stone and Sacred Breath Academy to avoid further legal action and a subsequent restraining order.

Finally, we hold genuine concern for your wellbeing and suggest you seek mental help immediately.

Regards,
Sacred Breath

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

HEAL has never threatened you with death. But, we do believe you should go to prison for fraud and the basis for that is at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm>. I've never stalked nor harassed Sean. But, Prof Grace/Turtle Jewelry on youtube led me to believe you were harassing Sean and me and that's been shared with Sean extensively with all the evidence and he has permission from me to share that with you as well. I've already reported you to the authorities. And, I've heard nothing from any authority and Sean has never asked I discontinue contact with him. We've been friends for nearly 2 years. So, if he didn't want me to be in touch with him, he'd let me know. It's not unusual for cults to try to control contact between their recruits and the outside world. So, I'm not surprised you are attempting to use intimidation rather than have an honest discussion where I've already documented everything and exercised due diligence to resolve any misunderstanding where you have not done anything of the kind.

Your lawyer can contact me directly. Have them e-mail me a copy of a cease and desist letter. I'll send all the documentation to him/her. You can have them check our efforts at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> and see if you have a case or if it will be seen as a SLAPP suit in which case the attorney could get disbarred. Your e-mail threatening such a suit is considered harassment legally if you have not contacted an attorney nor the authorities. I provided a copy of my report to the authorities, where's yours? See attachment. I also gave Sean an opportunity to clear up the matter before involving the authorities.

That website is run by David Bolthouse and he's associated with traffickers, drug dealers, and child torturers. That truth with evidence cited is available at: <http://www.heal-online.org/bolthouse.htm>. That page is our response to healonlinerevealed.com. So, you doubled down on supporting child traffickers while avoiding answering my questions and I'm supposed to believe you are honest and not harming Sean Stone. Right.

I've never made a false report to law enforcement regarding Sean Stone. Clearly, all of the concerns are justified, sources cited, and documented at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm>. Someone can be kidnapped by fraud. You are running a fraudulent program and that was confirmed by an agent with the FBI with whom we spoke in recent months specifically about your criminal enterprise.

You failed to answer any of our questions. Instead, you decided to be hostile and accusatory without backing up your own claims. And, the intro on the staff list is the same on all staff lists. We use language such as "if you were harmed" and "may have witnessed" so it isn't a false claim. It's suggesting that based on apparent fraud of your operation that other crimes may be occurring and that anyone injured report said crimes. There's nothing actionable nor wrong with that language. You can put in a small disclaimer, but, when in big print everywhere you say it does treat/prevent everything from anxiety to cancer, your disclaimer might not disclaim your legal liability where you have no qualifications to even claim to have an informed opinion on the results of the "breathwork". Since there are no legitimate studies showing that your "breathwork" does anything to improve or treat any mental health or medical condition along with your approach to this conversation with me, your second claim is bullshit and no way any attorney would take you seriously.

If you are concerned, answer the questions. And, you may have just given me the evidence I need to have you arrested myself as a direct victim as a result of your narcissism and unwillingness to have an open and honest discussion based on facts without quoting child traffickers as your source on HEAL being "bad guys".

So, I love Sean Stone and his family. I don't like seeing them be victims of fraud and abuse. And, HEAL doesn't base who we assist on class. But, we're willing to look at facts and amend our site if you have any legitimate facts to provide rather than bullshit harassment. If Sean wants me to stop contacting him, same with anyone else in his family, all they need do is say so directly to me. As for you, the same goes for you. I exercised due diligence in trying to get your side of things for months (sometimes through Sean, and you directly) before publishing our concerns. So, legally, I'm all good but you are not.

So, if you wish for me not to contact you again, just say so. I'll alert all other HEAL volunteers that you are unreasonable, criminal, and narcissistic so there is no point trying to reason with you and we should just let law enforcement handle it from here.

Plus, Sean was notified I have PTSD and given a guide on how to assist in the event of a trigger storm. Such a trigger storm happened over the last year as a result of harassment now believed to be attributed to Prof Grace/Turtle Jewelry and many other fake accounts and names that appeared to reference Sacred Breath Academy at times and threats to Sean so I responded to protect him from the perceived threat while offering him multiple opportunities to help figure out where the threat was coming from to deescalate the trauma response and any fears for his safety. So, in investigating I learned more about Sacred Breath Academy, concluded it was a scam/cult, and figured you were part of the "anonymous" harassers hacking, spoofing, and targeting me via e-mail and social media dating back to November, 2017 if talking Turtle Jewelry and that was a direct response to my just complimenting Sean once on Facebook. I left Facebook as a result of that harassment and filed a complaint as well. Sean is also aware of all of that or had the opportunity to know it as a result of the e-mail updates I sent to keep him in the loop and provide ample opportunity for clarification and understanding.

So, I'm reasonable and transparent. I've fully disclosed the entirety of all issues involved to Sean Stone and since we are friends I appreciate his discretion if he hasn't shared all of it with you. But, if he has, dare you to use all of it against me including the shit from child traffickers like David Bolthouse/Abundant Life Academy. Abundant Life Academy shut down by Mexican authorities for human rights violations. Abundant Life Academy shut down by state of Utah and prosecuted in Nevada for child endangerment. Abundant Life Academy moved to Virginia and was shut down after

Fox News reported a child was mercilessly beaten by three program directors for not conforming. So, go ahead and use that as your evidence against HEAL and great job just now confirming the type of person you are and why there is good reason to fear for Sean's safety.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith

This is Kaya also who emailed you the first email.

Perfect, Sean is emailing his CEASE AND DESIST now per your request.

You are delusional if you believe anything that you are saying is real. Sean is sitting right next to me. He is my boyfriend. He doesn't know you. He was incredulous just now when I read him this email and that you actually believe someone you are stalking is your friend. He says you are a mentally unstable person that has been stalking and harassing him for over a year. He has thousands of emails of your non-sensible ramblings. Not to mention the mail you send. Which has been reported to the police. He has been blocking your emails for months now. I was there when he sat it up the blocking tool while we were on holiday. They immediately get erased. So all the energy you spend writing them and he doesn't even see them. I do feel for you.

His family does not know you and is no friend of yours. They have never heard of you other than that you have been stalking their son for over a year. His mother throws away the packages you send. I suggest you watch A Beautiful Mind. It could offer some powerful insight onto your situation. Most of what you say is false and greatly distorted and we are immensely concerned for you.

No student of ours contacted you (because every single person that has gone through our program has profound and beautiful experiences) and nothing we are doing is "criminal". You are full of lies after lies after lies. It must be exhausting to live this way. If you expended even half of the energy you do writing stalker emails in tending to your body and mental health, you would be on a much better path. The karma you are accumulating in this life is baffling. You are likely triggered on the deepest levels by spiritual organizations doing real and beautiful work in the world because it illuminates the lack of inner work you have done on yourself.

DO NOT CONTACT US AGAIN OR THE RESTRAINING ORDER GOES INTO EFFECT FIRST FROM SEAN AND THEN US.

I will be blocking you after this so there is no point in responding.

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

I'm attaching the outline showing all the evidence (Sean is aware or has reason to know of all the evidence referenced) that your message(s) to me constitute criminal harassment and were retaliatory in nature.

In the event your e-mail account was hacked, spoofed, or appears to have sent messages you did not authorize nor would authorize, an apology and explanation would reasonably establish that the harassment messages, including demand messages, cannot be attributed to you. However, if law enforcement searches your computers and servers and can confirm it was you, then, any additional misinformation won't resolve the issue.

I did submit a complaint to the Attorney General of Washington State regarding your harassing e-mail messages or harassing e-mail messages that are reasonably believed to have been sent by you regardless of from which account they were generated. And, the Attorney General's office confirmed it was criminal harassment based on all evidence and advised I report it to local law enforcement because the consumer complaint division handles business or corporate crime and not individual harassment. Since I've already reported your fraud to the FBI and your messages were baseless and retaliatory, they constitute criminal harassment and are actionable both criminally and civilly.

I'm planning, and Sean knows or has reason to know this too, to file said complaint with local law enforcement on Monday, May 6th, 2019 with all the evidence referenced and I have more too.

In the event you are not responsible for the harassment messages (including demands) and they were a result of hacking, spoofing, or otherwise unauthorized access to your computer, you should make that clear before Monday, May 6th, 2019. If you don't apologize and make that clear, then I have no reason to believe anything other than what I do believe which is that you are a cult with ties to human traffickers harassing a nationally recognized human rights advocate that exposes fraud/cults /education scams because they happen to be friends with one of your recruits and don't wish to see him harmed and exploited by your garbage.

Now, the demand notices were full of misinformation and lies. So, since Sean Stone has never lied to me before and has more finesse with his writing, I believe you were responsible for sending an e-mail from his account which would confirm you control/monitor his e-mails and communications with the outside world like a cult.

Sean has all the evidence referenced in the attached .pdf. So, if he fears you and that's why he withheld any information, that just reinforces you are a Machiavellian manipulator running a cult and that my concerns are completely justified and warranted while your messages constitute actual criminal harassment.

So, in the event there has been a serious misunderstanding or we are all victims of Turtle Jewelry/Prof Grace/CatpowerNow, I'm open to having an honest discussion about it. But, if you were the fake Jackson Browne too, that might come up in the evidence and will prove you gas-lighted this whole situation.

I don't like cults and scams. This is why I run a nationally recognized consumer watchdog and advocacy organization that helps human trafficking victims. I've been a friend to Sean for years. And, it isn't unusual for cults to force recruits to distance themselves from friends and family. I'm very prepared for court and to respond to law enforcement if I hear about any alleged complaints you've filed before you hear about my harassment complaint "officially".

If you are capable of thinking and having an honestly reasonable discussion, now is the time to show that capacity. If you are a narcissistic delusional criminal as I highly suspect with plenty of evidence to back that up, then you might respond further incriminating yourself showing you lack any self-discipline whatsoever proving you are a threat to the public as a result. If you are simply someone misled now misleading others, then this should help bring you back to reality so you can become aware of the world around you that is external and has no interest in conforming entirely to your perspective. Regardless, Sean Stone deserves better.

You have until 12am Pacific on Sunday, May 5th, 2019 to apologize and explain yourself. Otherwise, I have no reasonable basis to believe anything other than what I currently believe as stated and will follow through as the Attorney General said it is something I must do, not could or should do. If I have a legal reason to believe by then that there was a serious misunderstanding, then that would negate my claim.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith

PS By 12am Pacific, Sunday, May 5th, 2019, I meant 12am Pacific, Monday, May 6th, 2019. You have until technically 12am Pacific Monday, May 6th, 2019 to clear up any misunderstanding. Failing to do so will further reinforce the Attorney General's command that I must report the crime to local law enforcement. See, if I have no reason to believe otherwise, you are guilty. Here's what I got out of one of the possibly spoofed e-mails from you "Everything was deleted and we have all the evidence, ask us anything and we'll say nothing to prove it". Dishonest people self-negate a lot. Honest people don't. Can you tell the difference now?

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

I've attached a copy of one of the pages from my discharge papers showing I have PTSD and have never been diagnosed with psychosis and was found to have no psychotic features nor delusions. And, you have no right to my personal health information. I'm sharing this as a courtesy and because I'm very public about my life experiences (much of which are discussed and found on the HEAL site and blog). And, I can confirm as someone with PTSD that you have no business and no qualifications to be claiming to help anyone with PTSD in any way. And, since you as an unlicensed quack chose to diagnose me without license to do so, that's going to work against you.

In the event you aren't familiar with how to write an apology, here's my suggested text.

"Dear Angela,

I apologize and admit I was unaware and quite ignorant while making false allegations and claims about you to you. I was unaware that I had no legal right to speak for Sean Stone. I was unaware that it was beyond what would be reasonably expected to violate your privacy in any way. I was unaware that you were friends with Sean since September, 2017. I was unaware that by stating your messages to Sean were harassment as a statement of fact that I was implying I had read all the e-mails and could thereby identify the nature of their content to the extent that would remotely warrant such an e-mail if in fact any harassment occurred which in light of all facts I now realize never happened. I was unaware that by claiming all e-mails are blocked and/or immediately deleted I was negating the implication made by stating to know the nature of the messages. I was unaware that accusing someone of multiple unsubstantiated crimes who honestly believes I am a criminal with ample supporting documentation/evidence and reported that to law enforcement would be considered legally actionable and appear retaliatory which is particularly frowned upon in the courts. I was unaware that there were penalties for continuing to be a #meangirl in adulthood. And, as a result of my utter and total lack of any awareness whatsoever, I must apologize for my ignorance and lack of conscious awareness.

Sincerely,

Kaya Danielle Leigh aka Kaya Azure aka Sacred Breath Academy"

Now, if you don't admit you are unqualified, ignorant, unaware, or otherwise incompetent then you admit you are a criminal. Because, your message to me is criminal harassment and my messages to you were due diligence on my part as an advocate for victims of scams, fraud, cults, and institutionalized abuses that often involve human trafficking. That's what I've been doing for nearly 20 years as an advocate. And, I've been friends with Sean but understand he's suffering undue influence and you control his access to communicate with certain people who are his friends just like a cult.

So, you can admit you are incompetent before Monday, May 6th, 2019 at 12am Pacific or wait to hear from law enforcement. This will be my last message to you without a third-party mediator. Please make sure any attorney you consult gets all the facts so they avoid any disciplinary action from my reporting them for harassment too.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith

Dear Sacred Breath Academy,

I do not wish for this message to be shared with any third-parties. The sole recipient with my consent to view/read this is Danielle Leigh aka Sacred Breath Academy. I understand upon receipt of this message it becomes the property of the recipient and they can do with it whatever they wish whether I like it or not.

Currently, Elizabeth Brumfield, Danielle Leigh, and Sean Stone are inviting me to prove they committed conspiracy to commit perjury, extortion, and harassment against myself and HEAL. All of that can and has already been proven, though not yet filed officially. The evidence is available at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf>. That evidence includes the following proof of extortion:

Dear Sean,

Below are suggested ways to write e-mails to respond to such in the future. The below are appropriate responses. Feel free to use these examples, that leaves SBA out.

1. How should I respond to excessive e-mails resulting from my life choices such as the fact I joined a destructive cult?

"Dear Angela,

I understand you are being harassed and trolled online.

"Threats. Extortion is based upon some type of threat. The person making the threat must state an intention to commit an injury or harmful action against the victim. For example, under California's law, a person can commit extortion by threatening to injure the victim or another person, accuse the victim of a crime or of some other disgraceful conduct, expose a secret, or report a person to immigration. (Cal. Pen. Code, § 519.) A person can make the threat verbally, in writing, or even through non-verbal gestures or other communications. In some states, merely making a threat is enough to qualify as a crime.

- Intent. A person commits extortion when making a threat with the specific intention of forcing someone else to provide money, property, or something of value. However, intent is not based on the defendant's statements alone, but rather upon the circumstances and facts surrounding the threat. In other words, a prosecutor can prove the accused intended to deprive the victim of property without having to actually show what was going on in the defendant's head." Source:

<https://www.criminaldefenselawyer.com/crime-penalties/federal/Extortion.htm> You can get up to 15 years in prison for it in California. And, with other likely charges including perjury, academic/healthcare fraud, and conspiracy, looking at possible life without parole, but, that's just my lay understanding of the law. You should really consult an attorney and make sure they see all the evidence or else your attorney can sue you too. See: <https://www.gordonrees.com/publications/2012/attorneys-sued-for-failure-to-disclose-relationship-with-arbitrator>

Now, I don't plan to contact you again. And, I don't know how big an MRF you are, but, your delusions and denial of the laws as they may apply against you are not going to prevent a judge from recognizing facts nor failure to disclose said facts where the whole case was based on extortion of a consumer advocate in order to control our content in consumer advocacy under threat of baseless legal action which was then followed up with a perjuring filing which all the evidence including the embedded message of extortion above shows.

I don't ever wish to meet you in person nor to associate with you in any way. And, if you show up in court, be prepared to answer the following:

1. Are you licensed and accredited?
2. Through which regulatory bodies or accrediting bodies do you hold any licensing or accreditation?
3. What qualifies you to provide academic and healthcare services?
4. When did you report to amazon? Evidence shows no such report was made.
5. What lawyer did you consult before writing Angela Smith and calling her a terrorist? Are they in the courtroom today?
6. What legal authorities were contacted by you or anyone else party to this case prior to June 13th, 2019 to report Angela Smith?

Oh, you can't answer any of those effectively? So, you lied in your e-mail response to Ms. Smith and have no credibility. Your statements are stricken from the record.

7. Did you know Elizabeth Brumfield initiated and ended contact with "The HEAL Team", not Angela Smith specifically? Did you know Elizabeth Brumfield was never harassed by HEAL or any representative of HEAL? Did you know in context that Brumfield's messages with all the rest suggest Brumfield to have been harassing, mocking, and bullying HEAL? See <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf> for the full exchange between The HEAL Team and Elizabeth Brumfield.

8. Did you know Sean Stone was very friendly and flirty with Angela Smith for about a year online and by mail? The evidence of that is also at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf>? Angela's response which will be filed by 7/12/19 at the latest, 7/1/19 at the earliest, proves that.

Perjury is a felony and Sean's filing was done under penalty of perjury. That comes with a 4 year sentence at worst. So, if found guilty of conspiracy and all the other charges (which the evidence overwhelming supports said charges) you'll all go to prison for maybe 20+ years and when you get out rules of parole will prevent your continued association.

So, while I'm not comfortable and very angry, I really don't want to see Sean go to prison even if he's willing to go down with your bullshit ship. But, if given no choice but to prove all of it on 7/17/19 in front of a judge who will have to report it properly and officially while likely ruling immediately regarding perjury, then I show up and do that. So, I still see you as very evil because a life coach who loves their clients wouldn't exploit their ignorance nor put them in a position to self-sabotage to this extent. And, there's nothing heroic about committing extortion, perjury, conspiracy to commit academic/healthcare fraud, among other potential charges. So, whatever fantasy land you all think you live in, you are in for a very rude awakening since your elitist bullshit in knowing I'm poor with no steady income living with my mother which you are hoping will result in a no-show and default ruling in your favor shows you don't know me at all nor how resourceful I can be.

This message is intended to assist you with preparing for the worst while you consider your options. Clearly you know HEAL exposes academic/healthcare fraud/human traffickers. And, you used one of their anti-HEAL sites (right, free speech is for all US citizens, not just those with whom you agree, dissent and sharing public opinions about goods, services, and more is all protected speech) showing you know or should know that free speech or the First Amendment applies to everyone and that HEAL has the right to expose and write about academic/healthcare fraud/human traffickers and we've been doing that for nearly 20 years. Our Alabama Coordinator is a retired police captain who was featured on ABC's 20/20 about his work shutting down Restoration Youth Academy. You can learn all about that at <http://www.heal-online.org/rya.htm>.

So, while included in the evidence at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf> are e-mails inviting Sean Stone to contribute content, e-mails inviting Elizabeth Brumfield to submit her own statement to be posted on the site next to her name, and a good faith effort to edit some of the content at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> where we removed the e-mail exchange between you and I and reference to Holotropic Breathwork among other things solely as a courtesy and to show willingness to be reasonable, as well as an e-mail to you asking about your licensing, accreditation, and qualifications to which you replied calling a nationally recognized consumer advocate a "terrorist", is all going to come out in court unless I'm notified that I don't need to schedule an unplanned trip because the issue has ceased to exist.

Now, I've attached proof of my limited social death that I shared with a few people. And, that's signed under penalty of perjury. And, I didn't receive notice by the deadline of acceptance of my limited social death. So, I guess you all want me alive and well and in court on 7/17/19 ready to send you to prison. I have tried to be reasonable and as friendly as possible while being kept in the dark on facts that if disclosed or wishes if expressed directly would've resolved this without such confusion and animosity. So, all of this just reinforces my position that Sacred Breath Academy belongs on the HEAL watch-list for academic/healthcare fraud. And, if I were you I'd want my name and reference to me and my organization removed pronto from that public filing by Sean Stone. I'd demand Elizabeth Brumfield's name be removed. But, if not, I'll see you all on 7/17/19 at 8:30am and look forward to destroying you in court because by then, I'll be so outraged that my grief over losing a friend will be unnoticeable as my focus and facts send people who've been trying to destroy my credibility and peace of mind where they all belong.

That's how I see it. That's how lawyers see it. And, I've been very nice and reasonable. So, my offers remain to contribute limited content to the HEAL site or information showing I'm in error on facts related to your licensing, qualifications, and accreditation even though the National Cancer Institute of the National Institute of Health confirms you engage in misleading marketing/fraud and should be reported to the Federal Trade Commission. And, if I'm found to be in error on facts, I'll make corrections and apologize as I've offered to do since my first e-mail to you which will also be in the evidence and is provided at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf> now.

The program isn't coming off our watch-list until it moves here: <http://www.beyondbusiness.net/youarenext.htm>. But, it arguably could and would have been removed if you were able to prove your legitimacy whatsoever rather than use coercion and intimidation to silence critics and dissent as a totalitarian oppressor running a cult/scam/etc. I understand you may have been misled by someone special too and maybe they didn't disclose to you the truth because they liked seeing your outrage and defense or jealousy. But, regardless, I'm not impressed and as the actual victim in this situation, I'm going to be exonerated one way or the other as is my advocacy network. Whether that costs you prison time and a huge settlement on any subsequent lawsuit I might file, is really up to you. I'm happy to keep doing my job exposing academic fraud, healthcare fraud, and human traffickers without paying more attention to you than to the others on our watch-list. But, I understand you may be developmentally disabled and delusional with an inability to consider all facts and understand the difference between truth and fiction. So, consider this last e-mail my giving you the benefit of the doubt.

My dog is old and ill. If she dies while I'm handling this in Los Angeles, I'll know even if my Mom doesn't say it. If I call and say "How is Gypsy doing?" And, she pauses and says "Fine. Tell me what's going on in LA." I'll know my dog isn't fine. I'll know by the tone and other indicators. One is whenever I go away Gypsy howls if she knows I'm on the phone. She howls the whole time calling me home. Sometimes I howl back. So, if I go to LA and I call to check on my dog and there is no howling then I'll know. And, I specifically said I didn't want to leave or go on any trips to Sean Stone until after my dog is dead because I don't want to leave her at the end of her life and take the chance I won't be here for her when she goes. So, all I have to do is think of that and I start crying. The tears are real. And, if it happens, I can't imagine when the whole story comes out anyone who did this to me will look remotely human to anyone with a soul.

Happy to see you in court though if that's what everyone really wants and you all assume the risk.

Best Wishes,

Angela Smith

Dear Bcc'd Folks,

I do not wish for this message to be shared with any third-parties. The sole intended recipients are undisclosed but specifically exclude Sean Stone. Here's my side:

After losing many of my closest friends, some believed to be lost as a result of foul play of those on the HEAL watch-list, I became very grief-stricken and a bit more cautious given there was a previous attempt on my life too where I was poisoned with strychnine as covered in "Activism 101" which is available at <http://www.heal-online.org/activism101.pdf>.

In September, 2017 I reached out to media personalities including Sean Stone regarding publication of "Activism 101". Sean Stone said he'd read it and would be happy to do so. I chose Sean because of his own work exposing cults, human trafficking, and reportedly being a victim of similar types of harassment to that which I and other HEAL volunteers experience. So, I thought he'd understand and being already targeted per his own statements on Alex Jones, wouldn't be put in greater danger as a result of our connection.

In November, 2017 I posted one compliment on Sean Stone's Facebook and was harassed by Turtle Jewelry (whomever that is) after doing so. I stopped going on Facebook regularly after that harassment began. In autumn of 2018, my Facebook had been compromised/hacked and I deleted it. I have some screenshots, but, sometimes my screenshot option is disabled when I'm being hacked or whatever goes on. I told Sean he should block and report Turtle Jewelry since the harassment was on his page.

From September, 2017-August, 2018 Sean Stone and I developed a friendship or that was my reasonable understanding based on our exchanges throughout that period.

Sean started promoting Sacred Breath Academy on Facebook (see attached) and given my work as a consumer advocate as well as someone who lives with traumatic stress/anxiety I decided to look into it considering enrolling to help with my own trauma if it was legit. As I began investigating, I noticed it wasn't legit at all. The ample evidence of that with sources cited is at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm>. And, that's how it ended up on the HEAL watch-list. Sean continued to promote it for months while apparently isolating and not addressing my concerns about it since it posed an unreasonable risk of legal liability to him and possibly RT for him to continue promoting it. I suggested he consult an attorney because Dr. Phil McGraw has been repeatedly sued as a co-defendant for recommending programs on the HEAL watch-list who engage in academic/healthcare fraud. So, I notified those in Sean's greater network of friends, family, and work associates regarding the mounting evidence of criminality.

I've hidden to video files on the HEAL site at <http://www.heal-online.org/SeanStoneVideo1.mp4> and <http://www.heal-online.org/SeanStoneVideo2.mp4>. The first is a joke PSA I created and sent to Sean that I said I would post to the HEAL youtube but chose not to do so. It shows Sean promoting Sacred Breath Academy and claiming "everyone steals" in a segment called "The End of Victim Mentality". I'm not kidding. The second video is the #MeToo segment from "Watching The Hawks" showing Sean vehemently stating that excessive texts or e-mails are definitively not harassment as a matter of law. Again, Sean Stone never told me to discontinue contact with him and even invited me to continue contact if and only if I stop my consumer advocacy campaign exposing the fraud at Sacred Breath Academy. Dear Sean,

Below are suggested ways to write e-mails to respond to such in the future. The below are appropriate responses. Feel free to use these examples, that leaves SBA out.

1. How should I respond to excessive e-mails resulting from my life choices such as the fact I joined a destructive cult?

"Dear Angela,

I understand you are being harassed and trolled online.

So, additional evidence that I had no reason to believe contact from me was no longer welcome is available at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf>. And, I believe the evidence thoroughly discredits Sean's complaint referenced at that link.

And, I'd prefer not to be the one to send anyone I love to prison even if the law thinks they deserve to be there. But, I'm going to defend myself in court unless that defense is no longer warranted because proof someone came to their senses is provided to me that I can share with my attorney.

But, I want to protect most, if not all, of you receiving this message by giving you the benefit of being fully informed on the facts. And, while I understand intellectual dishonesty in saying how you can misconstrue things out of context to argue a bullshit position may be what delusional narcissists think will work in court, I know the courts well enough to know my side will be fully considered in context and that it looks really bad for those on the opposing side.

So, do with this information what you will and understand my attorney has been asked to file my response with all evidence, attachment 11, and the video proof provided to you by way of link in this e-mail by 7/1/19 and no later than 7/12/19 unless there appears to be no reason for me to officially respond. And, I fear once filed there may be summary judgment dismissal and a call to arrest the truly guilty parties who were all named in the filing I'm responding to or to which my attorney will respond. So, I don't like this and understand sometimes people do foolish things, including me, but, I'd never be as foolish as the party who filed a knowingly false complaint under penalty of perjury.

I'd be foolish enough to send this e-mail in hopes to establish peace of some sort rather than force me to send anyone I love to prison by simply telling the truth to respond to a false claim they made in court.

And, I told Sean about Prof Grace on Youtube and her shit. And, he reported her channel and it is now gone. So, it's not like I'm unbelievable. But, someone else looks to be. And, I'm sure the courts will agree. Perjury is a big "no no" in court and can come with a 4 year prison sentence. It's a felony. Just that one. A felony.

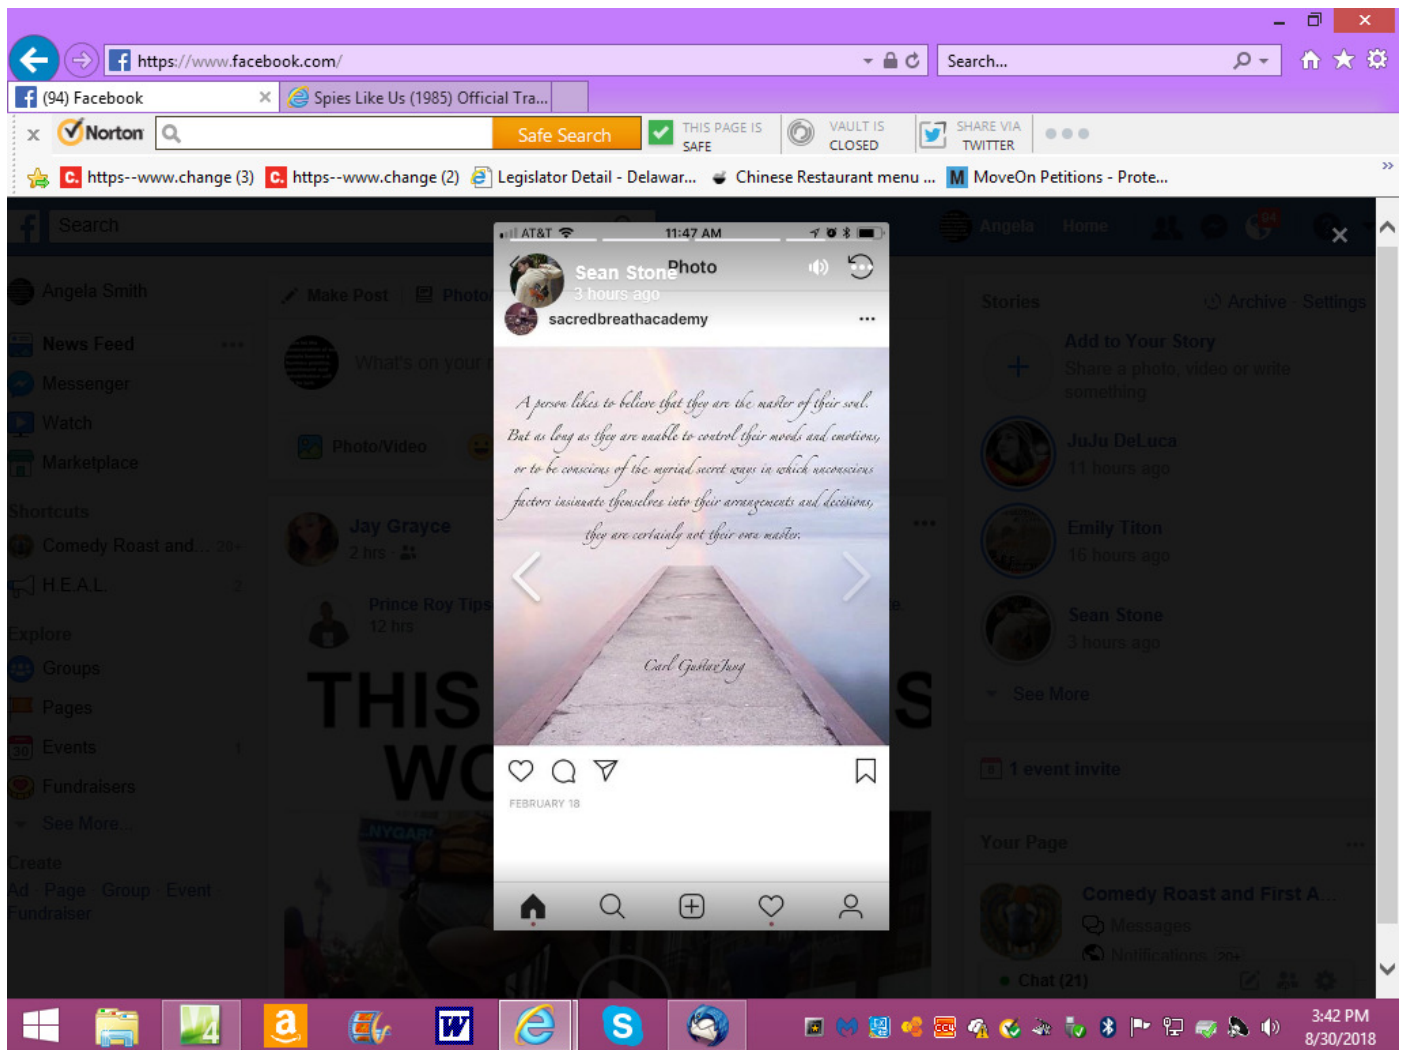

So, sit with this and know I honestly did all I could and I don't deserve this.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith

Dear Angela,

This is Kaya. I'm sorry if my first e-mail response to you felt charged, as I was very upset. In a way a mother would protect her child from false attacks, I also felt the need to protect my brain and "heart"-child from completely ludicrous accusations, because it is my life's work. Further, I didn't think such statements even warranted a response until your suggestions became simply incredulous. But since I now see you are completely relentless, I will address your questions below.

Sacred Breath Academy is something I have birthed over years of personal sacrifice and hard work. I have further been applying breathwork for over a decade with the most phenomenal results. It has truly changed my life and the lives of thousands in the most beautiful ways. All you have to do is go to the "testimonials" tab on my website to read though the many many lives it has impacted and transformed for the better. So, can you understand the basic logic here? Simple fact: Everyone that has experienced our format only has truly wonderful things to say about SBA. Then: One person (Angela Smith) begins attacking SBA because she is in love with the founder's boyfriend but can't find one shred of evidence to back her ludicrous claims. It's not rocket science. Pretty cut and dry.

Perhaps you don't know much about breathwork, but like yoga, reiki, tai chi, meditation and other healing practices, there is no requisite license to practice. And even though I have a business degree from a highly ranked university, there is no business license needed for an online academy. In fact, if you look up the history of the word 'Academy', it dates back to Plato's school intended to teach people with a common purpose and association, long before any institutions were established to control the dissemination of knowledge.

Angela, I do not think that you are a bad person. I feel greatly for your suffering from such severe PTSD and how it may influence your perception or the way you navigate daily life- not even being able to leave your house to go into the police station because it's so severe. I can't even imagine! If we met under different circumstances, we might even agree on a lot of the ills facing our society. I even appreciated your Gibran quotation I saw you cite once, as it as a personal favorite. However, it hurts my heart that you would make up such outlandish lies about me because of your infatuation with Sean. Even making up a fake rape incident and attempting to blackmail a student!!! These are very serious charges, Angela. Further, associating people like Deepak Chopra to rape, and playing the game of six degrees of separation, is not how things work in reality. And also, making up lies to the FBI that I gave you malware!? That is just the most absurd and self-involved thing I have ever heard. Hun, no one knows who you are. Sean only knows you from your emails. I am so curious why you think otherwise.

Then you accuse me of being a “cult.” The word cult is defined as “a system of religious veneration and devotion directed toward a particular figure or object.” I have no brick and mortar institution, no employees, and no followers. You even accuse Sean of being a member of Sacred Breath Academy, yet he has never gone through our program. Sean has no affiliation with SBA other than it is connected to his girlfriend. It’s that simple.

It seems to me that you are taking many threads of information out of context, and weaving them into a vast conspiracy. I challenge you to step back and look at the big picture. Sean, as my boyfriend, encourages my work by promoting my business, as a sign of companionship and love. Do you understand? Please let that sink in.

So, let me help you further understand how you have woven an elaborate conspiracy.

You have a romantic infatuation with Sean-

You see he has a girlfriend-

What is your only power in this situation?

Attempt to attack his girlfriend...

How does that play out?

You already have an agenda and outlet to attack religious and spiritual organization esp per trauma you endured as a teenager (and may have never fully resolved in yourself, and I do feel for you here)-

So for you, your directive has been to attack organizations under the religious or spiritual umbrella because of what you have been through. I can't speak to which are actually valid and which are not. But if it's anything like our instance, it's completely unfounded.

I'll walk you through some more facts:

- One doesn't need a license to operate under the wellness/spiritual arts umbrella. Simply reference the thousands of tai chi, meditation and breathwork schools operating as we speak.
- Further, all our website did was reference doctors and PhD's on the role of oxygen in maintaining optimal health. We in NO WAY made any medical claims or correlations. In fact, our disclaimer says the following:

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

Spiritual and emotional work, breathwork, yoga, meditation and any other form of alternative healing should not be construed as a substitute for direct medical advice from your doctor or other qualified clinician, medical or psychiatric examination, diagnosis or treatment. Anyone interested in breathwork is also responsible for seeking the specific medical or psychiatric attention they need, should they need it.

So you can stop purporting all of your cancer nonsense now. You have taken this way out of hand, Angela.

- Sean is simply my (Kaya's) boyfriend. He in no way "went through my program". We were in a relationship long before he knew any details about my work. We have liked each other for over 5 years, actually. We have been in a relationship over 8 months now and love each other dearly. Again, he only promoted me out of love and care. Is this too much for you to swallow? There are so many photos of us as a couple in love all over the internet and social media. Can't you just be happy for us? If you care for Sean so much, doesn't it warm your heart to know he is happy?
- Our TM doesn't show up because it is still pending. We only recently applied for it.
- Daniel and Valerie Holden are whomever had my cell phone before me. I get calls for them all the time. Happy to send you a screen grab where someone is texting for Valerie and I tell them it's the wrong number/previous owner.
- In the Native American tradition which I am from, it is common for an elder to give you a nickname/spiritual name as a rite of passage into adulthood. That is where "Kaya" originates. It is in no way a fake name- it's a name I hold quite dear actually.

- You attempted to blackmail a student, EJ (which we have on record) who only had positive things to say about us. SERIOUS CHARGE
- And you are now trying to make up a fake rape correlation. ALSO SERIOUS AND COMPLETELY OUT OF LINE
- And I have nothing to do with North Carolina other than we held a retreat there. Sean and I reside in a different state.
- And Aeleo is not my husband nor have I ever gone by Kaya Azure. He is just a dear friend.

I am not and have never targeted you nor seen you as a threat. I literally had no idea who you were until you first emailed me, and Sean said you were someone cyber “bombarding” him for almost a year. Perhaps if you didn’t bombard people with e-mails, wild accusations, unfounded claims and excessive stream-of-thought communication, Sean would have continued to reply to you as a ‘fan’ of his. Instead, if you look at the history, Sean stopped responding to you before I even began dating him.

I really hope you can see this as an offering of peace. But if you do still see me as a leader of something dangerous, here is a list of other Breathwork schools, none of which need a medical or psychiatric background or license to conduct.

List of Other Breathwork Schools:

<https://www.breathbliss.com>

<https://rebirthingbreathwork.com>

<http://shamanicbreathwork.org/home/founders/>

<https://www.biodynamicbreath.com>

<http://www.transformationalbreath.com>

Do you intend to investigate all of these, or is this really just an attack on me because you are jealous that I'm in a relationship with Sean? I'm sorry if you feel that way, but this is the simple reality. You pride yourself on being fair and just, so unless you want to "investigate" and list all of these other Breathwork schools + the many more I have not included, you can't list us on your website or single us out. If your problem is truly with breathwork, you would have to address all of them.

One other thing- so you don't keep wasting your time. You are not emailing Oliver. He has never seen one of your emails or heard of you. Your emails go straight to his assistant, get forwarded to our attorney for our upcoming court date and then deleted. Just so you know.

Also, I insist that you update this letter to your website, otherwise you are listing information that is not accurate.

Sincerely,
Kaya

Dear Danielle,

Your message below constitutes continued harassment of me and HEAL. I look forward to seeing you in court. And, you didn't cite your sources and offered just your word which I can't accept because of how much dishonesty is involved and the fact the National Cancer Institute and TESS already confirmed you are a fraud. You have lied about nearly everything in your response and we don't post misinformation. The offer is for Sean to write a guest blog article and interview you with the caveat that I would add any commentary without removing any of that made by Sean or you and cite my sources. I'll be adding your message to my evidence against you. Did you know that by continuing contact with me and speaking on behalf of Sean and Oliver again, you've now implicated Oliver? You have never given me the name of your lawyer and if you had one, then they would have advised you not so send the e-mail below and let them handle any further communications.

So, you just reveal yourself for the lying piece of trash and delusional fraud you are with every word you write. And, I have no reason to believe anything you say because you cite unreliable sources (self-promoting and mutual promoting frauds with no evidence supporting your claims other than frauds who deceive for cash which is what you do). My criticism of you is totally warranted. You didn't provide any evidence you are licensed, accredited, or qualified, in fact just the opposite which you continually reinforce all the time with every thing you say and do and you are the one most likely to be 5150'd if you show up to court at all on the 17th.

I suggest the lawyer review all the facts including police reports and more submitted or shared with Oliver. Failure to disclose all facts to your attorney (including everything I say, write, post, or share while citing my sources) may result in your attorney suing you. And, filing any suit against me and HEAL amounts to a SLAPP suit which is not allowed in CA and the attorney could be disbarred.

So, you can go to hell or do the right thing. But, since you are so stupid to not know the difference between truth and fiction or so evil to just sell lies for cash and demand everyone believe your bullshit and pay you for it, I'm happy to enlighten the court and you should really do your research before saying anything at all. And, that means maybe going to a real university where you learn how to think critically, review and cross reference sources, test reliability of source information, and then report your findings or use the information you find most reliable where there is enough consensus a court would remotely find it to represent fact on any level. I think police call logs, a statement from retired police captain Charles Kennedy (also HEAL Alabama Coordinator), the fact that you/Sean submitted info showing I was assisting the FBI on another case when I asked the agent I was assisting to see if Sean was okay because clearly he'd been kidnapped by fraud which has since been confirmed repeatedly, and Res Ipsa Loquitur bitch. You say find "Our Sacred Breath" on Skype on your own website. When you do that you get "Kaya Azure". Is "Kaya Azure" someone other than you? Because, when you told Kayla Richards to contact you on Skype, you gave oursacredbreath as the handle and the name that appears is "Kaya Azure" and that's in the evidence too.

You should review all evidence at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> and that includes all linked documents. I suggest reading through pages 29-316 at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf>, <http://www.heal-online.org/potentialfiles.pdf> (24 pages total proving you harassed me and then recruited Sean to support that harassment rather than tell the truth), and <http://www.heal-online.org>, and <http://www.heal-online.org/apologyrequests.pdf> for a reminder on how to write a proper apology. So, your message below is just more evidence for me to show an ongoing pattern of harassment where my blog was accessed through unauthorized access between 7/7/19 and 7/10/19 and I've got a message to get the IPs on that as well. Because, the only one who could've legally done it was Oliver Stone at the moment. If Sean did it, then he made contact with me through my blog and that negates any court orders. If Oliver did it, it was excessive and he removed 28 articles where only maybe 10 mention "Stone" and/or "Sacred". So, that was clearly noticeable and I restored all of it and changed the password. But, if it turns out it was your IP and you again accessed my platforms, computer, systems, or the like, then that too will be introduced and I'll be happy to shut you down next Wednesday in court at the hearing. The law's not going to recognize your unlicensed bullshit. And, clearly that's all you care about based on your message

If you were intelligent, you wouldn't contact me again and certainly not with the emotionally charged and still very emotionally manipulative language. You'd be reasonable and understand what facts are and have read through all the evidence I've provided and provided reliably sourced responses showing where I'm in error or misunderstood something I've read or researched. You can't do that. Is it because you are an MRF or just a cunt? I don't know. The court will have to decide whether you are permanently developmentally disabled and require supervised care as a result of your inability to separate fact from fiction or a criminal mind. Often it is a combo which is why there is such debate as to whether treatment or prison. But, treatment means you never get out in many cases and therefore is better for "slavery" or "forced labor" where they call it "work therapy". And, prison, everyone gets a second chance if they make it out to live without being forcibly segregated with a few exceptions like child rapists/rapists/sex offenders. That's because once on a registry you can't live near certain places and some landlords refuse to rent or can't rent to such persons because they rent to people with children. And, of course, death row and some inmates just never get out because of their severe sentences.

I'm not impressed with you at all. And, you don't scare me and I'm not afraid of any attorney who doesn't have the courage to represent his/her clients to the point they actually represent their clients and advise their clients not to contact the opposing party until after the hearing or any court date, particularly where there are any court orders.

So, you do piss me off as does your entire industry because you are all in bed with human traffickers and meet all the signs of a cult. But, since you are either horribly ignorant, willfully blind, an evil manipulative cunt, or some blend of that, I don't care to associate with you and do hope the Stones are free from you disgusting influence as soon as humanly possible. But, some people like things dirty, dishonest, and even raunchier than I prefer, so, maybe that's why they still let you hang around at all. But, no way you hold anyone's interest. You certainly aren't interesting enough and just like all the other scammers/cults/etc on the HEAL watch-list, except they are more polite and actually I don't mind having e-mail conversations with them when they identify themselves. That's the difference. This reply along with your stupid e-mail below will go up, satisfied?

Best Wishes,

Angela

PS You can now find the e-mail below, whole exchange there directly at <http://www.heal-online.org/dkharassment.pdf>, and that link has been added to two places on the page at <http://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> and will be tweeted out shortly. If you think a private e-mail exchange to discuss facts reasonably is upsetting, then you should really avoid court situations because my reliably sourced facts from police, law enforcement, and the NIH trump your bullshit. And, I'm not worried. But, I'm angry someone who lies about caring about Sean would involve him in a criminal enterprise, coerce him to perjure himself, and then assume willful blindness will get everyone out of trouble in the event the court sees through your bullshit too. You clearly haven't studied the law. I did. I passed the California State Bar First Year Law Student's Exam aka Baby Bar covering Constitutional Law, Contracts, Torts, and Criminal Law. You've put a family I care deeply about in serious legal jeopardy and in a position where I have to be very creative or just say #WhatCheneySaid to anyone not directly and expressly on my side/HEAL's side/the victim's side/etc... So, I've been as fair as possible and more so and you can review the facts and evidence or not. But, if you are too stupid to comprehend academic level discourse, you sure as shit have no business running anything calling it an "academy". That's a fact. You want to stay stupid or can't learn, that's your lifestyle choice. Don't expect anyone else to join you.

PPS I e-mailed Elizabeth Brumfield to let her know her name was included as a complainant and that if you were remotely qualified to provide any health or mental health benefits then you'd be licensed and your submitting an e-mail with one of your patients/clients in an unsealed public record constituted a violation of HIPAA which you would know if remotely qualified to offer services you claim to offer while disclaiming all of it at the same time discrediting the veracity of any claim or statement you might make thereby resulting in your not being believable at all on any matter. The fact that you lie and have lied repeatedly to me and about me as well as your own "business" just proves I'm right and reinforces my position. In addition, if Brumfield's name is still on the complaint, I can sue her as a co-defendant for libel and harassment. Brumfield initiated the exchange with HEAL, not the other way around. So, in no way did I nor anyone at HEAL harass her or stalk her as is stated in the complaint. I never threatened anyone at SBA with violence nor does my doing consumer advocacy work suggesting victims of fraud report it to the proper regulatory and law enforcement bodies amount to a call to violence of any sort. So, given your lack of credibility, the fact that you used child traffickers who lie and also some of whom have been arrested for torturing children to back up your lies about me/HEAL (including retired police captain Charles Kennedy as HEAL Alabama who helped shut down Restoration Youth Academy, a faith-based, unlicensed, diploma mill trafficking and torturing children in Alabama), and you also used a former HEAL volunteer's post who was dismissed from HEAL for unethical behavior like trying to use HEAL to get subjects for a scientific study on MDMA without revealing that was her reason for joining or trying to access our members/supporters, you have already lost in court and just don't know it yet. But, a lawyer or even 2nd year law student would know it because it is so fucking obvious only an idiot would fail to see it and only a criminal would deny it. Criminals aren't usually so stupid as to turn themselves in by using abuse of process to harass their victims and summon them to court though. UHS, Inc is licensed and accredited though still fraudulent and gets fined often for that. But, they at least do the paperwork and actually consult lawyers or have them on retainer. Clearly, you just double-down on idiocy every chance you get, and, that's sad. But, whether the court deems you delusional and insane and in need of treatment or criminal and in need of correction, either way, I win. And, if Sean is hurt by this, I'll enjoy any reports about what is happening to you that may result in PTSD so you can learn to empathize with people who live with trauma rather than trigger it constantly and fraudulently claim you can heal trauma. You are a total fraud.

PPPS Sean started promoting Sacred Breath Academy as early as 8/30/18. He did a video where he says his new spiritual thing he does for himself is breathwork through Sacred Breath Academy. The video of that is at <http://www.heal-online.org/SeanStoneVideo1.mp4>. So, that means if you've only been together for 8 months (since 11/10/18 or so), then he was promoting Sacred Breath Academy at least 3-4 months prior and stating in public videos that he works the program. So, you've done a number of videos with him where you've been manipulating him too or had him in a trance-like state offering period prayers because you don't understand your own biology or that you need to eat enough calories to sustain your body/energy and also enough iron before and during your period especially to make sure you don't get overly fatigued or frustrated due to low iron or low blood sugar. I'm not a doctor, but, if you ask one they'll say that's true. So, you constantly self-negate because you lie all the time and it is really just really annoying and like a total waste of time to read what you write or listen to you at all because there's nothing worth listening to or reading once anyone paying attention realizes you negate or disclaim everything you say or available facts do that for you. You have no credibility whatsoever and that's why when you have a Hitler meltdown because your emotional manipulation doesn't work in court and you can't interrupt without being removed for disorderly conduct when people present information that you would rather not be considered, I'll wonder, "Is she going to be 5150'd or just taken straight to jail?" And, that question will likely be answered Wednesday. If Sean is also hurt, I did everything I could to help him get away from your criminal shit and I hope the court understands he's been unduly influenced by your cult leadership. Otherwise, it's not looking good for any of you. And, if you don't stop speaking for Oliver Stone, I'm guessing he'll speak for himself. But, you have no right to use any member of the Stone family to try to bolster your own image, intimidate, coerce, or threaten me in any way. And, I already swore I'd say only nice things about Oliver and Sean in court. And, that's my plan still, though, Sean's own words or words you put in his mouth may work against him. PPPPS Also, because I know you take things out of context and will say to your stupid manipulative self "Angela said I don't cite my sources and then said my cited sources were bad or unreliable so she contradicted herself", allow me to clarify. You've not provided proof you are licensed, accredited, or qualified. You claim a lot, but, don't provide cited sources of your legitimacy to operate any business whatsoever let alone the one you claim to be operating. So, where I said you don't cite your sources, I'm referring to your not providing proof of licensing, accreditation, or your qualifications to run any business whatsoever. Where I say your cited sources are unreliable, I'm referring to your self-references because you lack any credibility whatsoever as well as your references to other charlatans selling the same bullshit and your backing up your false claims about me using the statements of drug addicts and child traffickers that you found online, had Sean introduce as hearsay under penalty of perjury, and then continued to harass me. So, your cited sources when cited are poor and don't address the questions asked about your licensing, accreditation, and qualifications which is all I asked about in my initial e-mail to you. You've still not answered those questions and just emotionally manipulate and lie to try to get your way. I'm not a

There are no fake rape charges. I'm a victim's advocate and they decide when to report to law enforcement and we assist them with that. I didn't blackmail anyone. Sean extorted me on your behalf. You libeled me and I told the truth about you. I've never stalked Sean. I'm not harassing anyone. Thought you can't leave your house to go to your local police station but you can fly to LA? Oh yes the judge will certainly know about your blackmailing and threatening a student, making up fake rape

PS I have to go to LA to court to defend myself and my organization from your slandering bullshit lies and exploitation of Sean Stone and his family. It isn't something I would choose to do and I've been summoned and could be held in contempt of court if I don't show up. So, yes, when I'm summoned to a court proceeding, I do go because I understand how the law works. And, I should've gotten the restraining order against you when Deputy Sadro suggested it. I'm very sorry that I wanted to handle things more reasonably or attempted to be friendly to resolve any issues regarding whether or not you are a fraudulent vicious lying cunt. Apparently, I've got all the proof I need that's true and will be happy to see you in court. And, so many facts on my side I'll bury you alive with all of it and in a figurative way that allows the judge to have all the fun in deciding what to do with the pile. But, since I care about Sean I've told him how to plead undue influence so hopefully only you get pinched hard by the long arm of the law in light of all the facts objectively rather than your delusional perspective.

WE HAVE NEVER USED REBIRTHING
BREATHWORK SO YOU NEED TO TAKE IT OFF YOUR "SITE" RIGHT NOW. WE HAVE NEVER STUDIED OR TRAINED UNDER THEM. YOU WILL BE SUED VERY SHORTLY.

And sorry but sending 10+ emails to someone a day with zero response from them is certainly stalking/harassing. You are the harasser. You are the one projecting. It's ironic the person harassing is saying she is being "harassed." That is projection at its finest. Definition of harassment: again, you sending people 10 or more emails a day that they don't even read or reply to. Do you really think this is normal behavior? Do you hear voices in your head? This illustrates many signs of psychosis though you need a proper diagnosis, I am only speculating. Though we actually heard that your information has already been submitted to the local psych ward.

Again, our suggestion: Please watch "A Beautiful Mind".

First of all, Sadro closed your case. He told Sean and myself to get a restraining order against you.

See what psychos or sociopaths do is take everything they are doing and flip it/project it on "the other".

You are the one harassing both Sean, I, Oliver and many others, so you flip it and say “we are harassing you.” When all we have ever done was respond minimally to your false accusations. Or told you to stop contacting us.

The Stone family doesn’t know you other than you are an obsessive stalker that lives in a trailer park. And you say I use them to “promote” myself, when this is exactly what you have done, having the audacity to actually call Sean a “friend”. Again, projection. Sean is my boyfriend and you are so obsessed with him that you have to create an elaborate conspiracy because you can’t accept it.

Aren’t you tired of making up so many lies by now? It’s really just becoming embarrassing for you. Again, attempting blackmailing and threatening a student of SBA? Making up fake rape charges? Tracing a cell number to the previous owner and making up fake correlations? You have become completely unhinged, Angela. When does the madness end?

Again, Sean or his father Oliver do not know you, nor did they ever. Do. You. Understand? Do you really call someone your friend that you have never met or spoken in person or on the phone, other than in succinct email exchanges of them asking you to stop contacting them?

I will be suing you for emotional abuse now along with lies, fraud, defamation and slander. Thank you for showing your true colors and how mentally unstable you are! Yours actions are vile and inhumane.

You have made up fake rape accounts, tried to blackmail a student, said the most horrific lies about us, stalked an entire family, and go after many other organizations because you have deep, unresolved trauma in yourself. So instead of facing your pain, you project it on anyone you can get your hands on to disown it in yourself. You are the one who needs the very healing that you criticize.

Again, none of us know who you are Angela! Other than you live on a trailer park, harass organizations, harass Sean Stone, and have an organization dedicated to playing out your early teen trauma. Because you were traumatized as a young girl, you have written a story that reduces and generalizes all spiritual organizations and teen camps to be the same, because you have not resolved that trauma in yourself. So you have to incessantly victimize yourself and create illusory scenarios in your mind. Though there are real issues out there but you are just blindly throwing around terms in a false and destructive way. You throw around the phrase “human trafficking” like it’s the most common word in the English language. Highly Disturbing!

Again, Oliver doesn’t know you. Sean doesn’t know you. Kaya doesn’t know you. Please embrace reality.

Why do you think you know Sean? He has never met or spoke to you in his life? Do you do this with a lot of celebrities?

Also, stop citing American Cancer Society. SBA makes no claims to anything medical, certainly not cancer. You are the cancer! Just stop with the lies. You must be exhausted!

It’s also concerning that you think a simple breathwork school (like any other meditation or yoga school) is a cult. We do feel for you. Again, unless you plan on opening further fake investigations on hundreds of schools, your claims are laughable at best. Hey at least you are good with comedy!

The lengths you have gone through because of your severe obsession with Sean are incredulous. Just because you can’t accept he has a girlfriend that he loves. Even signing a letter that you would "die for him"? Sending photos of yourself in the shower? Disturbing incessant ramblings?

We will be showing this in court as well to show your complete mental instability. In my opinion, you should not be allowed to live outside of a ward for the safety the public.

We know you have threatened to kill people before. We know how unstable you are. We know you make up delusions of grandeur. You appear very sick and need help. Please get help.

To conclude: no one believes a word of your lies. So you can stop now. For everyone's sake. No one wants anything to do with this insanity. And the public is already aware... <https://www.google.com/amp/s/theblast.com/c/oliver-stone-son-restraining-order/amp>

Dear Cunt,

There are no fake rape charges. I'm a victim's advocate and they decide when to report to law enforcement and we assist them with that. I didn't blackmail anyone. Sean extorted me on your behalf. You libeled me and I told the truth about you. I've never stalked Sean. I'm not harassing anyone. You are slandering and harassing me you stupid cunt and I'll be glad to have the court look at all the evidence and send you to prison for stupidity alone and the legal liability you've created for the Stone family is unforgivable you fraudulent, controlling, vicious, lying, evil piece of shit that will be flushed soon enough.

Best Wishes and Good Luck To You Too,

Go fuck yourself. And see the attached which will be added to our site shortly. You claim a bunch of shit and at the same time disclaim it. You have no credibility and offer "Breathwork Master" certifications which is the RBl certifications. So, go fuck yourself and I'm suing you you cunt and I'll see you on Wednesday. Don't contact me again. Have your lawyer do it. You have created a situation that puts Sean at serious risk of actual prison time and yourself too. You are an evil cunt who should die. And, I wish you would. But, I'd never hurt anyone in an illegal manner and will just leave it all up to the judge because you are an evil lying vicious criminal who should be segregated from society.

Right, in your first reply you said you do use the RBI breathwork by stating you don't do it on children like in Colorado and don't use pillows. But, it is the same shit or you contradicted yourself again. Not surprising because you are such a vicious lying cunt who wouldn't know the truth or chooses not to know it and doubles down on stupid every chance you get so you put everyone around you at risk by accusing Elizabeth Cox-Stone of a felony in throwing out Sean's mail without his knowing about it or seeing it. That's a crime. You lie about Oliver Stone and try to implicate him. You suborn perjury from Sean and negate his own under penalty of perjury statements on your behalf with your e-mails basically guaranteeing he'll at least be fined if not jailed for perjury. And, you operate without a license and make false claims violating state and federal laws. So, go to hell. I'll be happy to see you in court and send you straight to jail or watch the judge do that because all the actual facts are in my favor and your bullshit doesn't constitute facts and your emotional manipulations won't work in court. So, again, go fuck yourself and prepare for an extended stay behind bars.

You said you only do it to adults and not on children like in Colorado. You negate yourself constantly because you are either stupid or just a vicious lying cunt. Either way, happy to see you in court and expose all of it. I just hope Sean is seen as a victim of yours too so that he only gets fined. He'll need to deprogram, ask for immunity to testify against you for your fraud though. And, if he doesn't come to his senses by then, he'll be in trouble because you fucked with the wrong advocate you cunt.

Also, Sean disagrees with you on sending multiple messages per day, even up to 50. See the video evidence at <http://www.heal-online.org/SeanStoneVideo2.mp4>. The evidence of his stating he's a member/recruit of your cult is at <http://www.heal-online.org/SeanStoneVideo1.mp4>. And, also shown in the evidence at <http://www.heal-online.org/seanstoneproof.pdf> (start at page 29). You speak out of ignorance at best and hateful vicious deception at worst. I see it as a blend of stupid and criminal. I believe the court will agree. See you Wednesday. Some refer to "cunt" as a reference to the Hindu Goddess Kunti, represented the beauty and power of the female body in Mahābhārata, a major Sanskrit epic of ancient India. Not only did Yoni lead a powerful matriarchy that rivals the discourse of contemporary gender politics, but she encompassed life itself; she was worshiped at hundreds of shrines across the ancient Eastern world.

So thank you so much for this beautiful compliment! Many do saying I am loving, compassionate and Goddess-like- so glad you finally see it!

It must take a lot of energy to be so vicious and maniacal- are you taking care of yourself? Eating well? Sleeping enough? Getting exercise? Treating your PTSD?

FACT CHECK TIME

Actually, Oliver never liked your tweet. His assistant handles his social media. Just like she receives all of your emails. Reality is so amazing! Do you truly believe that an assistant of someone liking one post of yours in one isolated event constitutes knowing them? Please get help soon!

Next, Sean instructed his mother to trash your unsolicited stalker mail. He didn't even want to touch it in fear of what you may have put in it.

Further, we never were trained in Rebirthing, Angela. We offer our own method called The Sacred Breath Method. I literally wrote our Method was not the same as their Method. If I were actually trained under them (which I wasn't) I would have to teach it and list it on my website. Which I don't. Are you perhaps mentally handicapped? Somehow you find a way to distort almost everything into complete lies. You certainly hear (and perhaps see) what you want to, ad nauseam. Maybe voices in your head too? So it will just go in the lawsuit along with the other charges, no worries.

We know you are lying about everything. No one contacted you that went through our program. And Sean didn't so you can't try to use his name. The gig is up, Angela.

I deeply question your sanity at this point. I have never seen such a disturbing case of imbalance as this. You are a threat to yourself, to others and to society.

By the way, if you aren't obsessed with Sean, why would you write a letter that you would die for him? And why have you written him thousands of unanswered emails? Over and over and over... Like a completely mental person. Someone would have to sit at their trailer for the entire day to do this. All year long. All for someone that doesn't even know you.

And I said unrequited love/obsession. Not requited. You are in such denial and delusion that you cannot accept he has a beloved girlfriend. So you have to make up the most outlandish claims under the sun. An elaborate "Beautiful Mind" scenario. It is very sad. Very very sad. At this point we just feel sorry for you.

No one takes you seriously, Angela. Most cringe at your crazed emails. Your "reports" were all laughed off and some submitted to the psych ward we are told. Just so you know and can begin to prepare for the day they may involuntarily commit you.

And saying you are 200+ pounds for the restraining order is certainly accurate. Not perjury in the least. The main who served you said you were much heavier and much older than the photo we submitted. Do you want to weigh in the courtroom tomorrow to clear up any confusion?

Best
